REQUIRED TEXTS

INTRODUCTION:
Welcome to English 101! This course focuses on developing your knowledge of writing in several areas beyond mere grammar and punctuation. We will examine how we use writing to express personal ideas. We will practice using writing to learn new things. We will explore how writing can change depending who you write to. We will analyze how different types of communication like cartoons or music are a type of writing—or composing—that make meaning in people's lives. Finally, we will develop a richer sense of how research and form can give your writing power and purpose. The goal is not to convert you all into English majors. Instead, it is to help you be more aware of how language influences your personal, professional, academic, and civic lives, and how your knowledge of language and writing can positively impact those spheres.

COURSE GOALS: This course fulfills objective one of the General Education Curriculum at West Virginia University—to communicate effectively in English. English 101 accomplishes this through four course-specific goals. Each student can expect to
1) Develop a personal learning process for effective writing
2) Recognize and understand contexts that shape writing and research
3) Think critically to understand texts, contexts, and writing strategies
4) Know the rules for effective communication, whether those are style or genre conventions, rules for grammar and punctuation, or rules for recognizing sources with correct research citations.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- Attendance: You must attend class. Your grade will be compromised for poor attendance. If you miss more than two class periods for any reason your grade will be lowered for each subsequent absence. If you miss four class periods or more, you will fail the course. Chronic or excessive tardiness will also lower your grade, as will active disengagement or coming to class unprepared. For more information on the attendance policy please see pages xxi and xxii in WiP.

- Late Work: I will not accept late work. You are responsible for printing out all assignments before class begins. If you use a personal printer and it breaks, you are responsible for printing your materials from the university library or elsewhere. I will not print assignments for you. Additionally, using the excuse that your printer broke will not exempt you from turning in assignments when they are due.

- Academic Integrity: The English 101 community assumes your honesty and that you will turn in original work. Failing to do so may result in a failing grade for a paper, a failing grade for the course, or a more serious penalty. For more information about academic honesty and the student code of conduct at West Virginia University refer to page xxiii in WiP.

- Computers and Cell Phones: You are welcome to bring electronic devices that support your educational endeavors into the classroom. If, at any time, these devices become a distraction to me or other members of the class you will be asked to put them away.

  All mobile phones should be turned off or set to a silent mode. If you must take a phone call due to an emergency please quietly excuse yourself from the room. For excessive or disruptive cell phone use, I reserve the right to ask you to leave the class and mark you absent.

- Students with Disabilities: If you have a documented learning disability, a serious hearing or vision problem, or any other special need that might affect your performance and participation in class, please be sure to inform me. Also, please be aware of the support services available to you through Disability Services in room G30 of the Mountainlair. Their phone number is 304-293-6700, their email is access2@mail.wvu.edu. Their website is http://disabilityservices.wvu.edu/.

- Writing Center: The WVU Writing Center is a resource that can support you in all aspects of the writing process. It is located in G02 Colson Hall. For more information about the Writing Center refer to page xxiv in WiP.

- University Counseling Services: The Carruth Center provides resources to help manage stress, improve relationships, make healthy lifestyle choices, and face new challenges and transitions. For more information about their hours, services, and location see page xxiv in WiP.

OVERVIEW OF REQUIRED WORK: This is a portfolio-based class, which means you will not receive a letter grade on each individual assignment, but you will receive lots of feedback along with an overall letter grade at the midterm point and again at the end of the semester. Your mid-term and final grades are based on the following percentages:

Portfolio (base on major assignments and reflective writing) = 70%
- Multi-Angle Personal Narrative (5-6 pages)
- Feature Article (4-5 pages)
- Textual Analysis (5-6 pages)
- Stakeholder Research Paper (6 pages)
Short Writing Assignments & Homework = 20%
Participation = 10%

Please refer to Work in Progress for information about my grading criteria. We will also review this information in class. If you have any questions regarding your progress in the course, please let me know and we can set up an appointment at any time.

- Standard of Work: This is a college level course. You are expected to be comfortable with grammar, mechanics, and writing conventions. This means you need to have an adequate grasp of grammar rules, syntax, and academic tone. We will review some grammar, mechanics, and writing conventions as they pertain to certain aspects of your formal writing assignments, but it is important to remember that this is not a course in grammar and mechanics. The EasyWriter is an exceptional resource available to you that offers guidelines and activities to help you with these mechanics. The Writing Center is also a great resource available to you.
